Version 1 Last updated Date 14th April 2009

1. OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 The plan is seeking to increase the numbers of young people who are in appropriate education, training and employment.
- 1.2 Young people's education, training and employment needs are seen as a major criminological factor and therefore support in this area is essential if re-offending is to be reduced.

2. IMPACTS (Equalities and Vulnerable Groups)

- 2.1 Activity outlined in this plan is intended to benefit young people who are being supervised by the YOS, families, victims of crime, as well as the wider community who will benefit from crime reduction. Young people accessing services will be analysed in terms of gender and age (school age and above school age) and data will also be disaggregated to District/Borough.

3. ACCESSIBILITY

- 3.1 Activities set out in the plan are accessible and inclusive, any barriers including venue access, language issues, disabilities will be taken into consideration on an individual basis.

4. COMMUNITY SAFETY

- 4.1 Improving education, training and employment for young people directly contributes to the prevention of offending and re-offending and increased community safety

5. CLIMATE CHANGE

- 5.1 None identified

6. SUPPORTED PLANS

- 1. Youth Justice Planning Framework
